World Factory Moves International Headquarters to Westlake, Texas

July 26, 2010 – Westlake, Texas

In July 2010, World Factory moved their International Headquarters to new offices in Solana of Westlake, Texas a suburb of the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The Solana office park is a master planned business environment, providing many amenities including hotel accommodations, retail, and restaurants for their visiting clients. The grounds are designed with elements of simplicity and healthy living fostering an environment of wellness and relaxation, boasting jogging paths, places to sit and meet outside, streams and other natural beauty elements developed for individual enjoyment.

Brynn Smith, Vice President of Operations stated, "We selected Solana because it has so much to offer our visiting clients as well as our staff. We are looking forward to being a part of the Solana environment and enjoying the first rate technology services, extraordinary design and features."
