World Factory, Inc., Hardware/Home Building Industry and City of Hope Team Up To Find A Cure...

January 20, 2010 – Las Vegas, Nevada

For more than 25 years the Hardware/Homebuilding Industry has been instrumental in supporting City Of Hope, a pioneering cancer center in Southern California.

Lowes, The Home Depot, Ace Hardware and TrueValue individually support charities, but together they unite the industry to support one charity - City of Hope.

World Factory, Inc. joins this elite group of retailers to support the medical and scientific challenges not yet conquered, and some not yet known.

“The World Factory Team is proud to be a sponsor and associated with this outstanding organization,” said Lori Hickey, Director of Human Resources, World Factory, Inc.
